Buy From a Trusted Source: Your Practitioner

You deserve the best prices, quality, and expert guidance.

Why buy through my practitioner?

Your health care professional knows your personal nutritional needs and can help you avoid guessing or self-diagnosis. Your practitioner also understands Standard Process and MediHerb® products and can provide guidance, recommendations, and support.

We partner with authorized health care professionals because we trust them to make expert recommendations, and we believe that guidance is vital for your best health outcomes.

YOU DESERVE THE HIGHEST-QUALITY SUPPLEMENTS. ASK YOUR PRACTITIONER ABOUT STANDARD PROCESS AND MEDIHERB PRODUCTS TODAY.

What are the risks of buying Standard Process and MediHerb supplements from online retailers?

We cannot guarantee the quality of products sold through these third-party sites. A few of the issues we've heard about include people receiving expired products, the wrong products, products that have been improperly stored, or no products at all.

When found on these sites, our products are often priced at two to three times more than at your practitioner's office.

In addition to quality and price concerns, it is important that you know you are buying from unauthorized sellers. We do not authorize the sale of our products on sites like Amazon® and eBay®. When you see our products for sale on those websites, like these, don't be fooled.

For all of these reasons, we encourage you to work with your health care professional to determine the supplement-purchasing options that are right for you.
