From Seed to Supplement®

"Whole food nutrition begins with sun, water, and fertile soil." —Dr. Royal Lee

Our Commitment to Quality

Since 1929, Standard Process has followed the whole food philosophy of our founder, Dr. Royal Lee. Many of our supplements contain unique combinations of whole food and other ingredients.

Many of our raw materials are harvested from our certified organic farm. Our quality control measures assure product excellence in every stage, from farming through shipping.

Our Respect for the Earth

Our organic farming practices ensure that the quality of our farmland is maintained for generations to come. We use environmentally safe farming, manufacturing, and business practices.

Our Promise to You

Our goal is to create supplements that provide nutrition as close to nature as possible. We're proud that our products help health care professionals transform lives.

Distributed Through Health Care Professionals

The informed guidance of a health care professional is vital to the optimal use of nutritional and herbal supplements.
